FOREWORD

This year the 1956-57 staff of the PINE BURR has tried to present to you in the twenty-second volume of our yearbook, faculty members, classmates, organizations, features, snapshots, and athletics. They are to remind us in the future of the days we spent at dear ole Campbell. This book will be for us a record of the friends we knew, the things we did, and the memories that will always be dear to us.

The Yearbook of 1956-57 will bring to mind the enrollment of 426 in 1953 to 815 in 1957, the Expansion Program that was carried on for the betterment and uplifting of Campbell College, the new, spacious library annex and other buildings in the planning stage.

We have striven hard and worked diligently to make our yearbook the best. It has taken much time and outstanding co-operation from everyone. We hope in the years to come, as you turn the pages of the PINE BURR, you will be reminded of a school where high moral standards are maintained and the Golden Rule is practiced as an aid to the molding of good, Christian character.

D. RICH MEMORIAL ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

DEDICATION

"We know that in everything God works for good with those who love him."—Romans 8:28

Like Paul, whose life and works represent part of his subject-matter, this man whom we honor has been able to wrest victory from defeat, triumph from tragedy, and strength from pain.

A bursting shell on Africa's sands maimed his body but did not warp his spirit nor quench his curiosity. He radiates good cheer, enthusiasm and friendliness. He asks no quarter and represents a constant challenge to all able-bodied men and women. An indefatigable worker, he imparts to his students glimpses of his personal struggle to reach "the stars through difficulties."

With genuine affection and high regard, we of the PINE BURR staff take pleasure in dedicating this 1957 edition to our friend and teacher, Dr. Perry Q. Langston.

IN APPRECIATION

JACK KITCHIN

By unanimous acclaim the Board of Trustees of Campbell College on November 19, 1956, authorized that the attractive new ninety-six-man Dormitory, completed last year, be known as the J. F. Kitchen Dormitory. By so doing they pay tribute to the brilliant success of this young Norfolk businessman and to his abiding loyalty as an alumnus, particularly as it was expressed in his timely challenge gift during the recent Development Program Campaign.

The Board of Trustees of an institution may be aptly described as "the power behind the throne." Chosen by and representing the Baptist State Convention, Campbell's Board owns title to the properties of the college, adopts all operating budgets, passes upon faculty nominations, decides upon future-planning programs and policies, and reviews current administrative procedures. Much credit for the spectacular growth in enrollment of 85 per cent in three years and the correspondingly rapid expansion of plant facilities is due to the progressive co-operative leadership of Campbell's Board during the last few years. Credit for the over-subscription by more than $50,000 of the $250,000 goal for plant expansion during the fall of 1956 should go in large measure to the generous pledges and active campaigning of the Trustees.

MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT L. H. CAMPBELL

If indeed our minds "are peopled, like some silent city, with a sleeping company of reminiscences, associations, impressions, attitudes, emotions," what happy memories this album of familiar faces and scenes will awaken in after years! How these pages throw the spotlight upon the varied efforts of many glamorous young actors as they strut their parts on the stage of college life! Our thanks to the editors who have depicted for us so accurately and artistically the aspirations, disappointments, and adventures of our days at Campbell.

But some say that such drama as we have herein portrayed is based upon unreality. Nevertheless the rules of success and failure are the same as those that govern in the game of life beyond campus walls, where they play for keeps. Punishments and rewards are just as inevitable.

*"For when the one great scorer
Comes to write against your name
He writes—not that you won or lost—
But how you played the game."*

MESSAGE FROM DEAN A. R. BURKOT

Having passed this way together, may we share the memory of our brief pilgrimage recorded here in scenes and faces, names and deeds. Let them kindle anew the glow of warm friendships, the sparks of enthusiasm for our many associations, the light that came from words of wisdom and acts of loving kindness.

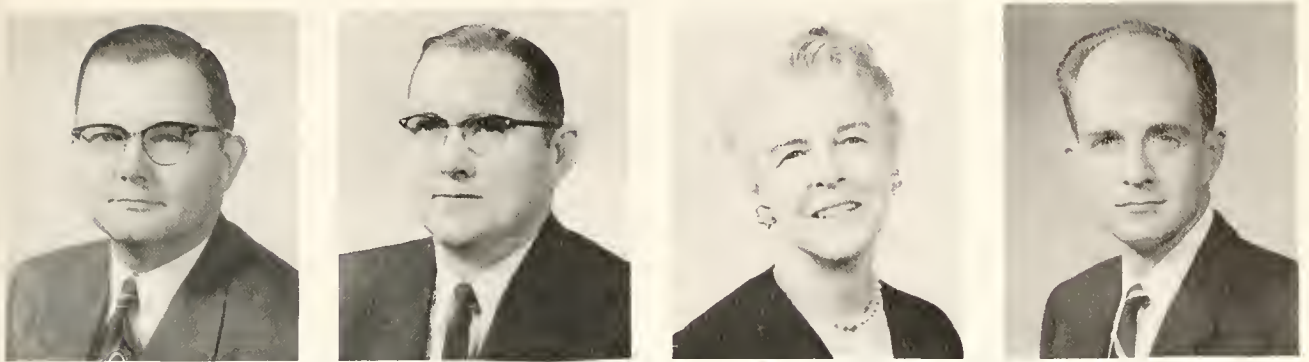

Yes, it was good to be here and may the distance of days to come not obscure the reality of life as we lived it, amid laughter and tears, successes and sorrows, toil and leisure.

Each passing year on life's journey will sharpen our yearning for the privilege that cannot be ours to live once more our days at Campbell.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student government at Campbell College is a co-operative effort by students elected to their places of responsibility and non-voting faculty committee designated by the President of the College.

Its common concern is the welfare of Campbell

College and of each individual connected with it. The activities of the student government are legislative, executive and judicial in scope. An ever-increasing student body presents the need for many adjustments and the application of imagination to the solution of problems that arise. The emphasis is placed on fairness, firmness and mutual concern.

RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES

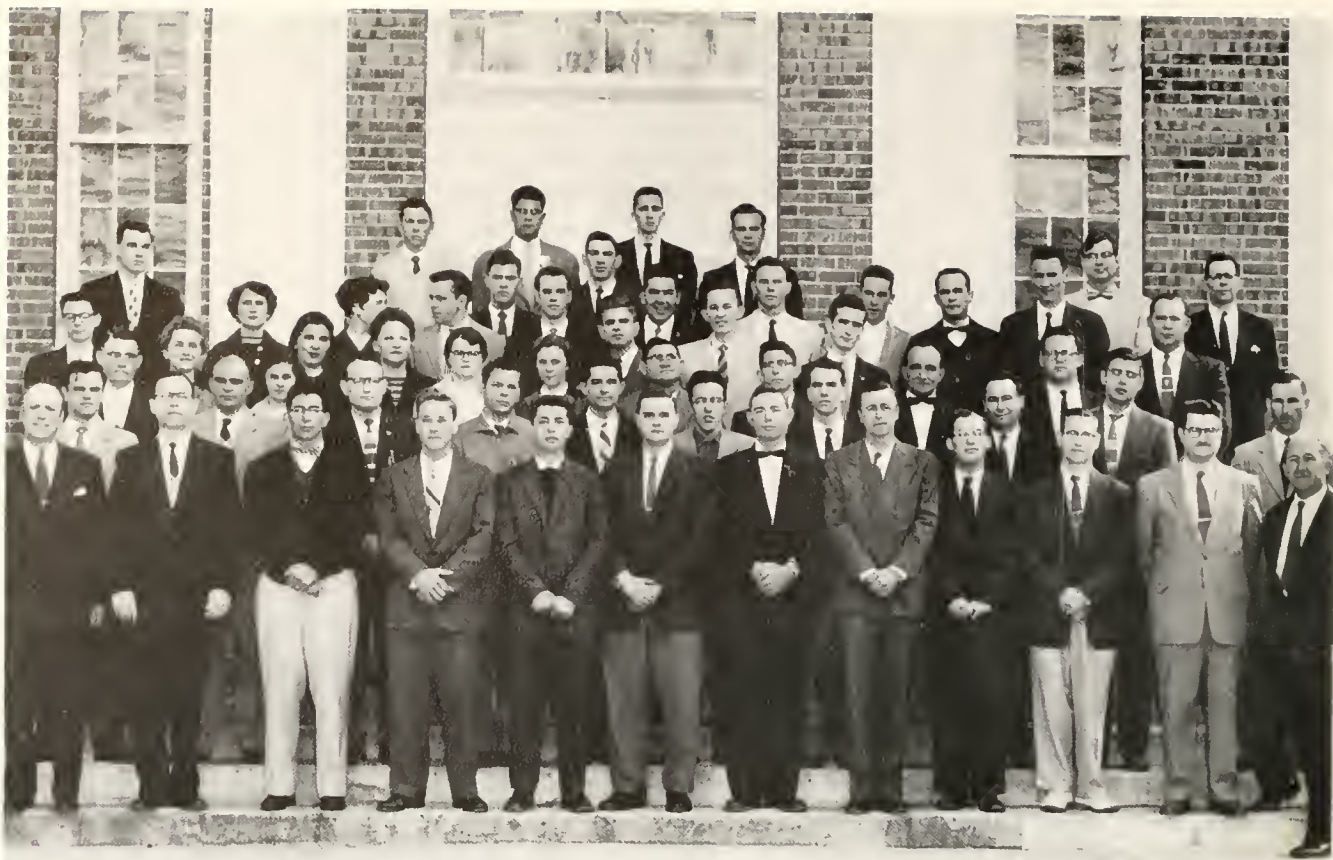

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

The Baptist Student Union on a College Campus has the following purposes: the development of Christian leadership, the ministering to the spiritual needs of the men and women on the campus, and the extending of the teachings of Christ to all parts of the world. In carrying out these purposes an individual has the opportunity to grow in knowledge, Christian love, and thus broaden his field of service to his college, to his country, and to his God.

THE MINISTERIAL CONFERENCE

From its beginning the training of men and women for the ministry and Christian work has been one of the chief aims of Campbell College. One can see from a survey of leadership in the field of religion in our area that Campbell College has furnished her share of worthy and capable Christian workers.

A few years ago, the administration became keenly aware of the ever-growing need of better preparing the ministerial students. As a result a Ministerial Conference Class was organized. The class secures as speakers for these meetings well-trained men from church-related institutions and churches, thereby enabling the ministerial student to come in contact with the best minds and personalities of our area.

The students are given the opportunity to prepare and deliver speeches to the conference.

DRAMA EVENTS

The Importance of Being Earnest

Amahl and

The College Little Theatre began its '56-57 season with a lively production of Oscar Wilde's comedy, The Importance of Being Earnest. In December, as a contribution to the Holiday festivities, the Little Theatre and the Music Department combined talents and produced a sensitive and beautiful opera, Menotti's Amahl and the Night Visitors. In the Spring, the Annual District Drama Festival was held in the College Auditorium. Plays presented at this Festival were judged, and awards were presented to those winning high ratings. Those winning high ratings were invited to perform at the Annual State Festival held in Chapel Hill. The final production of the year was a new presentation of Paul Green's The Highland Call. The show was jointly sponsored by the Harnett County Historical Association and Campbell College.

THE COACHES

There is a widespread interest in athletics in America. This is evidenced by the wholesome influence which this phase of educational learning is instrumental in developing the youth of our country. As much as any other activity in education, athletics emphasize personal qualities, high degree of initiative, moral and physical courage, and a respect for the principles of good physical and mental health.

Athletic teams are fostered and encouraged as an integral part of the educational process. This process is to develop the individual into a well rounded personality capable of meeting the demands of society.

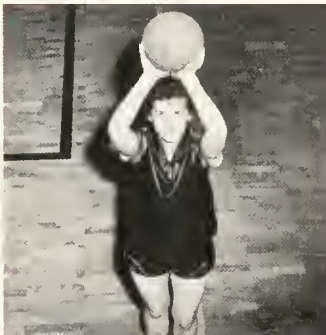

Winning and losing in competitive sports will teach the participant to take success and defeats graciously, which is beneficial training in the realities of livelihood.

Thanks

This book just could not have been completed without an expression of appreciation to those who have made it possible.

First of all, I want to say a big "thank you" to the staff and to all the friends we could draft when the deadline was so near. I wish I could name each of you.

To Lynn Barry and his assistants my thanks for the outstanding pictures. It was a long, tough process and working with such a rookie co-editor, I know, brought about undreamed of complications. The pictures were still great!

This year, as in many years past, our individual portraits for the class section, superlatives, and May Court are the product of Haynes Studio in Raleigh. Thanks Mr. Haynes for your never-ceasing co-operation.

To the faculty and students who turned in copy pertaining to clubs and athletics, I would like to say "many thanks."

My thanks to the firms and concerns who contributed to our book. Also, to "Champ" for his fine work on ads.

Finally to our Faculty Sponsor, Robert L. King: words are futile in expressing our gratitude for your work and co-operation. You seemed never too busy to listen to all our problems and if possible to provide the right answer. You have truly been a great friend to all the staff—my sincerest thanks to you, for all the time and interest you put in the 1956-57 PINE BURR.

Edwards & Broughton Co., Raleigh, has traditionally printed the Campbell College yearbook. We are again indebted to them for their co-operation in helping to make this yearbook possible.

All my best wishes to the '58 staff of the PINE BURR.

MARY ROSE PARNELL
Co-Editor
